Time of Citizens' Rapid Transit Company.

At an extra session of the Board of Aldermen last night the action of the Council in granting an extensit Company in which to begin the con-struction of the Marshall Street viaduct and the laying of its track in the city was concurred in without a dissenting vote. The privilege gives the company until the first of next year in which to undertake the work.

Major Otway S. Allen, of Madison

Ward, was not present when the action was taken, arriving at the City Hall just after the vote had been announced. To a representative of The Times-Dispatch, and a number of members he expressed surprise at the action which had just been taken. He is strongly of the opinion that the Council had no authority for taking such a step, in view of certain provisions of the new Con

'Major Alion was a member of the Constitutional Convention and is well acquainted with the provisions and intent of the instrument. He says that there is a clause in the Constitution which provides that all franchises shall be put up at auction and sold to the highest hidder, and he contends that the extension of time allowed the Citizens' Rapid Transit Company is practically equivalent to giving them a new franchise, for had they not been given the extension and failed to have undertaken active work by life first of next month the original right would have become null and void.

D. Norvell, Sergeant-Major W H. Kindervater, Sergeant-Major John C. Weckert, Sergeant O, E. Gelbrecht, Sergeant J. Curry Bosher, Sergeant A. N. Jennings and Sergeant B. B. Doving.

All arrangements were perfected for the muster-in of the camp on next Thursday ovening at $130 F. M., at the armory. Adjutant-General L. C. Dyer, of Washington, will arrive here, Thursday affernoon and will be met at the train by Captain Bossieux and Lieutenant Skipwith and escorted to the Jefferson, and in the evening he will be secorted to the armory, where he will muster in the command. General Dyer will probably be accompanied by several other prominent officers.

The following names were added to the charter list lost evening: General William Naile, Captain A. W. Miller, Lieutepant J. C. Pege and Sergeants G. H. Anderson and G. H. Davis.

A number of others are on the charter list, who were unable to be present isst night, and it is expected that the command will embrace but its original muster roll the names of at least thirty to military circles.

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION

Six Men Instantly Killed and Anothe Seriously Hurt.

(By Associated Press.) SPRINGFIELD, ILL., March 23.-A terrific explosion of gas in the mine of the Athens Coal Company at Athens, twenty miles north of Springfield, to-day esulted in the death of six men and se-resulted in the death of six men and serious injury of another.

The dead are John Rogers, Fred Impake, S. Gorndorf, James Patrick, August Noel. David Myers. Injured, Carl Joerfolch.

Noel, David Myers. Injured, Carl Joerinich.

An entry in the mine had been some time stopped up on account of gas, and an attempt was made to open it by drilling another entry in orded to allow air to enter and gas to escape. While engaged in this work a miner fired through to the stopped-up chamber, causing an explosion of the gas which had accumulated in the chamber. Nine men were in the mine at the time and six were killed outright, and Joerinich badly intered. Some of the men killed were one hundred feet away from where the explosion occurred.

ALLEGED DISCRIMINATION

Commerce Commission Heard Argument in Washington.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, March 23.—The Interstate Commerce Commission heard fina arguments to-day in the case of Charlotte, N. C., Spinners' Association against lotte, N. C., Spinners' Association against the Southern, Seaboard, Baltimore and Ohio, Chesapeake and Ohio, Norfolk and Western, Pennsylvania and numerous other railroads, South, East and West. The shippers alleged unjust diacrimination in the matter of freight rates from Eastern and Western points to Charlotte as compared with rates to Norfolk, Richmond, Lynchburg, Va., and Wilmington, N. C.

The railroads denied that the rates were unreasonable.
